

Some of the cable stations, Discovery, Discovery Health, The History Channel - do not caption their shows. In most cases, these are very educational and it's a shame that they are not accessible by the HOH/Deaf population. On network TV, there are times that a show is captioned for part of the program but not all, as though someone turned the captions off or on (particularly NBC). I have no idea who to contact in this case,